Just Arrived!

Twould be difficult to find a man that did not enjoy the pleasure of wearing a handsome necktie.

They all do—but they will especially enjoy one line of heavy silk four-in-hands that arrived yesterday.

We haven't even placed them in the window, so you have an opportunity of the "first look" at these catchy ties.

BRODHEAD

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Collier, of Crab Orchard, and Mrs. J. W. Hutcheson, of Louisville, were here Monday.—J. W. Proctor sold a small farm first of the week to Oscar Rose for $500.—Mrs. Collins Wyatt, who used to be Miss Myrtle Murray, is spending a few days with Mrs. J. W. Masters and visiting her mother and other relatives here.—W. P. Rigsby bought a sow and nine pigs from Laws and McBee the first of the week for $80.—Mrs. J. W. Masters returned Saturday from a three weeks visit to her sister at Williamsburg.—Everett Watson bought a house and lot near the old fair grounds last week from G. W. Frederick for $460.—Ed. L. N. Bowling held regular services at the Christian church Sunday.—C. H. Frith was called to Tennessee last Friday on account of the serious illness of his brother, Tilden Frith.—Dr. W. E. Gravely sold his stock of general merchandise to J. A. Oliver, of Berea, last week and Mr. Oliver is now in charge and will occupy the same building used by the doctor. Mr. Oliver is an experienced merchant and a genuine hustler. We are fortunate to have Mr. Oliver and his estimable family with us.

A team of mules of Amos Smith became frightened in passing an automobile early last week near Boone's Fork and threw Mr. Smith from his wagon, breaking his leg just above the ankle. The broken bones were set by Drs. Gravely and Carter.—Mr. Smith was taken to the Berea hospital Sunday. The driver of the automobile was a young Mr. Cole, of Barboursville, and no one seemed to deplore the unfortunate affair more than Mr. Cole. The break is a bad one and it will be many weeks before Mr. Smith can be out again.—C. H. Frith sold his residence property on Main St. to Mrs. K. J. McKinney and is beginning the erection of a nice brick bungalow on the site where his father's old residence once stood. This building will be modern in every respect and one of the best in town when complete.—James Francisco and family, of LaVelle, Tenn., were here first of the week with his father and other relatives.—P. H. Shutt, of New Castle, Ind., is spending several days with relatives and friends in and near Brodhead. He arrived just in time for the Brodhead fair.—Brodhead Graded and High School opened Monday with Prof. E. A. Strange, Principal, Miss Henrietta Forsee, 7th and 8th grade teacher, Miss Keller, 5th and 6th grade, Miss Louella Forsee, 3rd and 4th grade and Miss Lena McCall, primary. The school promises to be one of the very best and it is hoped that every citizen and patron will do all in their power to create more interest and make the school a greater success.—We want our good friend at Livingston to know that we appreciate his expression of regret that he missed our Signal letters and we trust there were others that missed us. We hope that each week hereafter there will appear something from Brodhead.—The Brodhead Fair which closed last Friday was a howling success, especially so in point of attendance, the second day being possibly a record breaker for the county. Such attendance should inspire the management to offer better premiums and provide for better attractions. It should be the desire of each stockholder to make the next fair each year a better and more up-to-date fair and this cannot be done by staying in the same old rut. Those attending have a right to expect better show rings each year and new attractions as well.—With our beautiful grounds and our facilities for having the biggest fair in the state, we should at least be progressive to the extent that we show we have a high mark to reach in the "fair" world and endeavor to improve each year.

THE MAN TO ELECT.

The greatest enemy of good government is the political boss. He controls nominations, and later the officers themselves purely for revenue and graft. Fortunately, the democrats have selected a nominee for Governor who was opposed by these political leeches. He was known to be honestly and sincerely dry. This caused many democrats in the principal cities of the state to vote against him. But, we have faith in the people sufficiently to believe that the thing that moved the city democrats to oppose him, will lead many a country Republican to go to the polls and cast his ballot for him in November. Governor Black is a man whom the people can trust. His word is as good as his bond. He is as square as a die; a man of high personal standing and wide business experience. No clique or political ring has any collar around his neck. He will take no directions from any political boss. He belongs to and is a part of the GREAT COMMON PEOPLE, always deeply in sympathy with them and anxious to serve them. He is a high class Christian gentleman, who has the business and educational as well as the moral interests of the state at heart. His election means the advancement of those things that are very near and dear to all sober and progressive people. So, whether we be Republican or democrat, if we want a man who will be on the job to render honest, conscientious service, and absolutely free from the corrupting influence of political bosses, we should go to the polls, take our neighbors with us, and vote for JAMES D. BLACK!!!

"Get out that gas buggy," says Johanna to Jonathan. "We have worked until we are both stiff and sore. We need a change. A few days trip will do us much good." "But what will we do with the children?" answers Jonathan. "Why take them with us, of course. They will be benefitted as well as we", says Johanna. "Now in the flyer we will go into other counties to inspect other farms; to look upon fine blooded cattle, hogs and sheep. We can learn how other farmers get the best out of the land. The old it may well soon take us where we can see for ourselves the wonderful advantage of waterworks and electric light plants on the farm. In this way we can have a fine vacation and make our "Lizzie" pay for itself in educating us and our children through seeing what other people are doing on the farm." "Good Johanna, you are a wise old gal! Bally for your suggestion and off to the Blue Grass we go for a wholesome change and to learn better and more progressive methods of living."

Farmers of Rockcastle try this suggestion for yourselves and see if we cannot gain knowledge and inspiration from such a trip.

The new cages for the county jail have been installed and once for the first time in many years, Rockcastle has a decent place to keep its criminals. The old dungeon on the first floor has been converted into a coal house and the cages are on the second floor. Judge Carl Mullins is very much pleased with the conditions around the court house and jail and has every reason for feeling so. Thompson took his train on into Corbin and then returned to Stanford and surrendered. The remains of Mitchell, whose home is said to be in Texas, were buried at Crab Orchard Wednesday. A number of passengers with whom we have talked, and some who were eye witnesses are unanimous in their support and defense of Thompson, whom they say did nothing more than he had to do.

Conductor Russel Thompson who is on the regular run between Louisville and Corbin, shot and killed a man by the name of Mitchell at Crab Orchard Monday night. A number of eye witnesses saw the trouble and each one says that Thompson acted in self defense and did nothing more than any other man would have done under the same circumstances. Mitchell belonged to Coley's Shows, the bunch which were in Mt. Vernon two weeks ago. Brodhead last week and at Crab Orchard this week. Mitchell, his wife and another man boarded the train at Louisville. Between them they had two tickets, and because they were not able to get by, being drunk besides, resolved to kill Thompson before they left the train. Several passengers heard Mitchell say that he would get Thompson at Crab Orchard. When the train stopped Thompson came out to help his passengers off and as he entered the vestibule Mitchell was standing there and without a word opened fire, but both shots fired by Mitchell went wild, yet Thompson's face was badly powder burned from one of the shots. Thompson promptly returned the fire, one shot going wild, the other passing through the body near the heart and causing death a few hours later. Mitchell was drunk and had caused disturbance all the way from Louisville and had come so infuriated at Thompson because he (Mitchell) had to pay his train fare instead of being able to beat it as he and his pals had planned, that he had worked himself up to the point where he was willing to take Thompson's life without a moments warning. This he attempted to do but Thompson was too nervy and too steady and beat the would-be assassin in his desperate attempts.

Thompson took his train on into Corbin and then returned to Stanford and surrendered. The remains of Mitchell, whose home is said to be in Texas, were buried at Crab Orchard Wednesday.

RED CROSS ANNOUNCES ITS ANNUAL CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS AND MEMBERS

To carry out its war-time obligations in countries overseas and to launch its peace program at home, the American Red Cross will conduct its annual campaign for members and funds between November 3 and November 11, Armistice Day. Fifteen million dollars is the national quota, asked in addition to 1,920 members.

MacKenzie R. Todd has been appointed campaign manager for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, the three states of the Lake Division, by D. C. Dougherty, acting manager of the Division. Mr. Todd is now in Cleveland working on plans for the drive at the general campaign headquarters.

Mr. Todd has appointed campaign managers for the division—R. F. Grant, Ohio State Manager; Clarence Stanley, Indiana State Manager, and John R. Downing, Kentucky State Manager.

EXECUTIVES DETAIL PLANS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PEACE TIME RED CROSS

CTING Lake Division Manager D. C. Dougherty calls attention to the fact that Congress recently prolonged the responsibilities of the Red Cross abroad when it authorized the transfer to the Red Cross of such medical and surgical supplies and supplementary and dietary foodstuff now in Europe as are not needed by the army abroad or at home. These Red Cross is to administer to relieve and supply the pressing needs of the countries involved in the war.

While many Americans may believe that Red Cross foreign obligations are at an end, Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the central committee of the American Red Cross, calls attention to the fact that our Allies suffered far more hardships with than did we and that we have incurred obligations which honor demands shall be discharged, and, furthermore, the vast territory of the far east, cut off from aid during the war, has looked to America since the cessation of hostilities.

The Red Cross is now turning its attention to home needs and has worked out a program covering home service, nursing, preparation for disaster relief and a Junior Membership.

"Service to Americans" will be a Red Cross slogan henceforth.

Crime Reduced By Eliminating Saloons.

Reports From Wet Covington Show 40 Per Cent. Fewer Arrests in July 1919, Than Wet July a Year Ago.

Arrests in the police court of Covington for the month of July 1919, totaled 138, according to the report of Commissioner of Public Safety Theodore Kluemper, a reduction of 89, or nearly 40 per cent. from the number of arrests in July 1918. Forty persons were arrested on vagrancy warrants in July 1918, and two were before the court on the same charge in 1919.

For June 1919, the arrests in Covington totaled 421. Of this number 182 were accused of drunkenness and 139 with either disorderly conduct or being drunk and disorderly. For the month of July 1919, the drunks numbered seventeen and the other two classes of offenders sixty-five.

The figures were made public at the headquarters of the State-wide Prohibition Federation, which is collecting information from all the formerly wet cities of Kentucky with a view to what effect on crime the elimination of the saloons by war-time prohibition has had.

Members of the Kentucky Sunday School Association in session at Ashland are solemnly warned by J. Sherman Porter, publicity director of the Federation, of the danger of apathy in regard to adopting the state prohibition amendment at the election November 4, so that in the event the wet succeed in the contest of the National amendment, saloons might not "again be turned loose on the boys of Kentucky."

Mr. Porter's prediction that after next January saloons would be "known in America no more forever" was roundly applauded and his story of some of his own observations of the ruin wrought by liquor was told in a striking and dramatic manner. He told how war time prohibition had reduced the number of arrests in formerly wet towns 39 to 80 per cent, and said it was not likely the people would want to return to the old conditions.
